ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 24.09.2018 vide which the respondent was absent.

2. Today again the respondent is absent. The appellant states that no information has been given to him so far. He further states that he has filed RTI on 22.03.2018 but after lapse of more than seven months no information has been given to him. This shows that the respondent has no regard for the orders issued by the Commission. This is indeed a serious matter.

3. After hearing both the parties and perusing the record available on file it emerges that PIO has delayed/ denied in providing the information to the appellant. In view of the above, PIO- EO, Barnala is directed to show cause in writing or through affidavit under Section 20(1) of the RTI Act, as to why penalty be not imposed upon him for willful delay/ denial of the information to the RTI applicant and why the compensation be not awarded to the appellant under Section 19 (8)(b) of the Act for detriment suffered.

In addition to his submission, the PIO is also hereby given an opportunity under Section 20(1) proviso, thereto, for a personal hearing before the imposition of such penalty on the next date of hearing. He may note that in case he does not file his
