AC.No. 4160 of 2019

3. Today, the respondent states that the information has already been sent to the appellant. He further states that the appellant had inspected the record on 02.08.2019. Respondent adds that he has brought the information today in the Commission except copy of bills of CCTV cameras, which is third party information. Remaining another copy of all the information is handed over to the appellant today in the Commission.

4. After hearing both the parties, and examining the case file, it is ascertained that the complete information has been given to the appellant in the Commission office today except copy of bills.

Regarding bills, the respondent has brought consent of third party stating that their information should not be disclosed. The same is taken on record.

The appellant may take note that the third party information cannot be supplied to him. Section 8 (1)(d) of the RTI Act details the information which is exempt from disclosure.

"Information including commercial confidence, trade secrets or intellectual property, the disclosure of which would harm the competitive position of a third party, unless the competent authority is satisfied that larger public interest warrants the disclosure of such information;
