ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 13.08.2026. The relevant portion of the said order is as follows:

> "2. The respondent submits that the reply has already been sent to the Commission through email, which is taken on record. However, the appellant is absent without intimation. It is also a fact that a notice of hearing was sent to him through registered post but even though he is absent. Accordingly, last opportunity is given to him to remain present on the next date of hearing for deliberations, failing which, the case will be decided as per the procedure established by Law.
>
> 3. As such, a copy of the reply so received from the respondent is being sent to him along with this order to point out the specific deficiency, if any, well before the next date of hearing."

In today's hearing i.e. 04.11.2026:

2. The appellant is absent without intimation. It is also a fact that a copy of previous order was sent to him through registered post but even though he is absent, which appears that his absence is intentional & willful and/or has nothing to say in this case and/or does not intend to pursue this case.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 13.08.2026. The relevant portion of the said order is as follows:

> "2. The respondent submits that the reply pertaining to the RTI application has already sent to the Commission. Also, the appellant make submissions that he be allowed inspection of the record. Accordingly, the request is accepted and the respondent PIO is directed to make available the record for an inspection. The appellant is directed to visit the office of the respondent with prior intimation.
>
> 3. Both the parties are directed to remain present, in person, for deliberations, on the next date of hearing to take the matter to its logical end."

In today's hearing i.e. 04.11.2026:

2. The appellant submits that the directions may be issued to the respondent PIO to allow him an inspection. Also, he submits that an email has already been sent to the Commission in this regard, which is taken on record. However, the respondent submits that whatever information was available on record has already been sent to the appellant. Further, she submits that nothing more is available in the official record which could be supplied and requested to close this case. Also, she submits that a reply has already been sent in this regard, which is taken on record.
