Respondent: Ms Manpreet Kaur (M: 8968349616), DEO

ORDER:

1. This order may be read with reference to the Commission's previous order dated 06.08.2026.

2. Today, the respondent reiterated his earlier submissions and stated that no further submission or rejoinder had been received from the appellant pursuant to the last order. Accordingly, he requested that the matter be disposed of.

3. The appellant, though connected through Webex, remained unresponsive despite being called upon several times. Further, no written submissions pointing out any discrepancy in the reply furnished by the respondent have been received from him.

4. In view of the above, it is evident that sufficient opportunities have already been afforded to the appellant to substantiate his case and point out any deficiency in the information supplied by the respondent. However, he has failed to avail the same.

5. Accordingly, finding no further grounds or submissions warranting continuation of the proceedings, the Commission is of the considered view that no useful purpose would be served by keeping the matter pending. The appeal is, therefore, DISPOSED OF on the basis of the available record.
