3. The appellant filed above said application to the Public Information Officer but due to non-satisfaction, he filed the First Appeal before the First Appellate Authority. Feeling aggrieved, he filed the Second appeal and accordingly a notice of hearing was issued to the parties concerned. The case was adjourned number of times to take the matter to its logical end and the reasonable opportunities were given to the parties concerned and the case was reserved and after the same, the appellant sent the written submissions, which are taken on record.

4. The submissions made by the appellant are as follows:

Appeal Case No. 5968 of 2024

Prayers:-

(1) ਇਹ ਕਿ ਆਰ. ਟੀ. ਆਈ. ਐਕਟ ਸਬੰਧੀ ਮਾਣਯੋਗ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਐਂਡ ਹਰਿਆਣਾ ਹਾਈਕੋਰਟ, ਚੰਡੀਗੜ੍ਹ ਜੀ ਦੇ ਸਿਵਲ ਰਿਟ ਪਟੀਸ਼ਨ ਕੇਸ ਤਿਲੇ Rajwinder Singh vs State of Punjab and Others, ਕੇਸ ਨੰਬਰ CWP-17672 /2023 ਹੁਕਮ ਮਿਤੀ 16/08/2023 ਰਾਹੀਂ ਜਾਰੀ ਹੋਣ ਦਿੱਤੀ ਹਦਾਇਤਾਂ ਵੱਲ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਕਰਕੇ ਧਿਆਨ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਜਾਵੇ:-
This Court has found that in a large number of cases, the authorities including the first Appellate Authority ((while adjudicating the first statutory appeal under Section 19(1)) and the second Appellate Authority ((while adjudicating the second statutory appeal under Section 19(3)) under the Act, have been passing cryptic and non-speaking orders in violation of the judgments passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and various High Courts and also in violation of the mandate of the Act of 2005. It is, thus, found necessary to give the following directions to the first Appellate Authority and second Appellate Authority under the Act of 2005 to clearly specify the following at the time of finally adjudicating the case:-

- *i) The points on which the information is sought by the applicant as per his /her application filed under the Act of 2005.
- *ii) The point-wise reply with respect to the information sought.
- *iii) A categorical finding as to whether the information on any of the points has been supplied or not and if supplied, the date on which it has been supplied.
- *iv) In case, it is the stand of the authorities from whom the information is sought that the information sought under a particular point is not to be supplied on account of any bar contained in any provisions of the Act of 2005 or for any other reason, then, after recording the said stand and after considering the submissions made by both the parties with respect to said point/issue, return a finding with respect to the said issue/point.
- *v) Any other observation which the authority deems fit in the facts and circumstances of the case to be recorded.

ਸੇ ਬੇਨਤੀ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਕਿਰਪਾ ਕਰਕੇ ਉਪਰੋਕਤ ਮਾਣਯੋਗ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਐਂਡ ਹਰਿਆਣਾ ਹਾਈਕੋਰਟ, ਚੰਡੀਗੜ੍ਹ ਜੀ ਵੱਲੋਂ ਜਾਰੀ ਹੁਕਮਾਂ ਅਨੁਸਾਰ ਫਾਈਨਲ ਹੁਕਮ ਜਾਰੀ ਕਰਨਾ ਜੀ।

(2) ਇਹ ਕਿ ਪਬਲਿਕ ਸੂਚਨਾ ਅਧਿਕਾਰੀ ਵੱਲੋਂ ਸਮੇਂ ਸਿਰ ਸੂਚਨਾ ਮੁਹੱਈਆ ਨਾ ਕਰਵਾਉਣ ਕਾਰਨ ਅਪੀਲ ਕਰਤਾ ਨੂੰ ਆਰਥਿਕ ਤੌਰ ਤੇ ਨੁਕਸਾਨ ਹੋ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ ਅਤੇ ਮਾਨਸਿਕ ਤੌਰ ਤੇ ਹਰਾਸਮੈਂਟ ਝੱਲਣੀ ਪੈ ਰਹੀ ਹੈ, ਸੇ ਬੇਨਤੀ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਇਸ ਸਬੰਧੀ ਆਰ. ਟੀ. ਆਈ. ਐਕਟ ਦੀ ਧਾਰਾ 19(8)(b) ਤਹਿਤ ਅਪੀਲ ਕਰਤਾ ਨੂੰ ਮੁਆਵਜ਼ਾ ਦੇਣ ਦੇ ਹੁਕਮ ਜਾਰੀ ਕੀਤੇ ਜਾਣ ਜੀ।

5. During the hearing, the appellant requested that the directions be issued to the respondent to supply the point-wise information in accordance with the decision passed by the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court in CWP No. 17672 of 2023 on 16.08.2023, the relevant portion of which is as follows:

1. "This is a Civil Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for setting aside the order dated 06.03.2023 (Annexure P-9) vide which the second appeal of the petitioner has been disposed of by respondent No.2-State Information Commission, Punjab.

Appeal Case No. 5968 of 2024

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner had moved an application dated 15.09.2022 (Annexure P-2) under Section 6(2) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (hereinafter to be referred as “the Act of 2005”), in which, he had sought information on seven points. It is further submitted that when the said information was not provided to the petitioner then he filed the first statutory appeal on 18.10.2022 (Annexure P-5) and when even the first Appellate Authority did not provide the requisite information to the petitioner then the second statutory appeal dated 29.12.2022 (Annexure P-7) was filed by the petitioner. It is contended that although, the information under point Nos. 3, 4 and 6 of the application (Annexure P-2) was not supplied but the State Information Commissioner, Punjab by passing a cryptic and non-speaking order and without even stating the facts of the case, had disposed of the case and closed the same. It is further contended that neither the details of the information which was sought has been mentioned in the impugned order nor it has been stated as to on which points the information has been supplied and on which points the information cannot be supplied and the reasons for the non-supply of the same. It is argued that the State Information Commissioner, Punjab was hearing the statutory second appeal filed by the petitioner under Section 19(3) of the Act of 2005 and was thus, duty bound to pass a reasoned and speaking order and the same having not been done, the impugned order dated 06.03.2023 (Annexure P-9) deserves to be set aside on the said ground alone and the matter deserves to be remanded to the State Information Commissioner, Punjab for passing a fresh order after considering the contentions raised by the petitioner and the respondents and for adjudicating the same.

3. Learned State Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent Nos. 1 to 7 has although, tried to justify the impugned order but could not dispute the fact that neither the details of the information sought in the application nor the date on which the information had been supplied nor any reasons have been given before disposing off/closing the second appeal.

In the event, information under a particular Clause/point is not to be supplied on account of any bar contained in any provision of the Act of 2005 or for any other reason, the finding on the said aspect must be recorded, which also has not been done in the present case. It has been vaguely stated that the requisite information has been supplied and that the authority found the response of the PIO to be satisfactory. From a reading of the impugned order, neither the case of the petitioner nor the stand of the respondents is clear, nor it can be ascertained as to information under which clause/point of the application has been supplied and when.

8. This Court vide judgment dated 13.07.2023 passed in CWP-

1877-2022 titled as “Gagnish Singh Khurana Vs. State of Punjab and others” has held as under:-

“13. It is a matter of settled law that quasi judicial authorities must record reasons in support of its conclusion and insistence on recording of reasons is meant to serve the wider principle of justice that justice must not only be done but also appear to have been done and that recording of reasons is indispensable in the decision making process and the same facilitates the process of judicial review by the Superior Courts and it is also necessary to give reasons for sustaining the litigants’ faith in the justice delivery system. It has further been repeatedly held that reasons so given in support of a decision must be cogent and clear and should not be “rubber stamp reasons”. Reference in this regard may be made to the judgment of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in case titled as “M/s Kranti Associates Pvt. Ltd. & Anr. Vs. Sh. Masood Ahmed Khan & Others” reported as 2010(3) SCC (Civil) 852, in which it has been held as under:-

51. Summarizing the above discussion, this Court holds:

a. In India the judicial trend has always been to record reasons, even in administrative decisions, if such decisions affect anyone prejudicially.

- b. A quasi-judicial authority must record reasons in support of its conclusions.*
- c. Insistence on recording of reasons is meant to serve the wider principle of justice that justice must not only be done it must also appear to be done as well.*
- d. Recording of reasons also operates as a valid restraint on any possible arbitrary exercise of judicial and quasi-judicial or even administrative power.*
- e. Reasons reassure that discretion has been exercised by the decision maker on relevant grounds and by disregarding extraneous considerations.*
- f. Reasons have virtually become as indispensable a component of a decision making process as observing principles of natural justice by judicial, quasi-judicial and even by administrative bodies.*
- g. Reasons facilitate the process of judicial review by superior Courts.*
- h. The ongoing judicial trend in all countries committed to rule of law and constitutional governance is in favour of reasoned decisions based on relevant facts. This is virtually the life blood of judicial decision making justifying the principle that reason is the soul of justice.*
- i. Judicial or even quasi-judicial opinion these days can be as different as the judges and authorities who deliver them. All these decisions serve one common purpose which is to demonstrate by reason that the relevant factors have been objectively considered. This is important for sustaining the litigants' faith in the justice delivery system.*
- j. Insistence on reason is a requirement for both judicial accountability and transparency.*

Appeal Case No. 5968 of 2024

k. If a Judge or a quasi-judicial authority is not candid enough about his/her decision making process then it is impossible to know whether the person deciding is faithful to the doctrine of precedent or to principles of incrementalism.

*l. Reasons in support of decisions must be cogent, clear and succinct. A pretence of reasons or 'rubber-stamp reasons' is not to be equated with a valid decision making process.

m. It cannot be doubted that transparency is the sine qua non of restraint on abuse of judicial powers. Transparency in decision making not only makes the judges and decision makers less prone to errors but also makes them subject to broader scrutiny. (See David Shapiro in Defence of Judicial Candor (1987) 100 Harvard Law Review 731-737).

n. Since the requirement to record reasons emanates from the broad doctrine of fairness in decision making, the said requirement is now virtually a component of human rights and was considered part of Strasbourg Jurisprudence. See (1994) 19 EHRR 553, at 562 para 29 and Anya vs. University of Oxford, 2001 EWCACiv405, wherein the Court referred to Article 6 of European Convention of Human Rights which requires, "adequate and intelligent reasons must be given for judicial decisions".

o. In all common law jurisdictions judgments play a vital role in setting up precedents for the future. Therefore, for development of law, requirement of giving reasons for the decision is of the essence and is virtually a part of "Due Process".

14. Reference may also be made to the judgment of the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court in case titled as "Banarsi Das Cotton Mills (P) Ltd. Vs. State of Haryana and another", reported as 1997(1) PLR 17, in which, it has been held as under:-

"XXXXXX

3. Although the impugned order/notice has been challenged on various grounds, we are of the opinion that the same is liable to be quashed on the short ground it does not contain reasons. There can be no manner of doubt that while deciding the appeal the Higher Level Screening Committee acts as a quasi judicial authority and it is duty bound to record reasons in support of its decision. The recording of reasons and communication thereof is imperative for compliance of the principles of natural justice which must inform the proceedings of every quasi judicial body and even in the absence of a statutory provision or administrative instructions requiring recording of reasons in support of the orders, the quasi judicial authority must pass speaking orders so as to stand the test of scrutiny.

4. In Testeels Ltd. v. N.M. Desai, Conciliation Officer, A.I.R. 1970 Gujarat 1 (F.B.), Full Bench of the Gujarat High Court held that the jurisdiction of the High Court under Article 226 and that of the Supreme Court under Article 136 of the Constitution of India cannot be stultified by administrative authorities by passing non-speaking orders.

5. The requirement of recording of reasons and communication thereof by quasi judicial authorities has been emphasised in several judgments of the Supreme Court including a Constitution Bench Judgment in S.N. Mukherjee v. Union of India, A.I.R. 1990 S.C. 1984.

7. In view of the above legal position, we quash the rejection of the petitioner's appeal by the Higher Level Screening Committee and direct that Higher Level Screening Committee shall reconsider the appeal filed by the petitioner and pass a fresh order after giving opportunity of hearing to the petitioner. Appeal Case No. 5968 of 2024

6. A perusal of the above-said order would show that after considering the entire matter, the Information Commissioner was of the opinion that no final point-wise reply has been provided to the appellant as per the record and thus, had directed the CPIO to provide a final consolidated reply on all the points as provided by the concerned custodians within 7 days from the date of receipt of this order. However, instead of waiting for the reply, the Information Commissioner disposed of the appeal without final adjudication of the matter and that the said procedure is not in accordance with law.

7. A perusal of Section 19 of the RTI Act would show that under sub-Section 3, an aggrieved person has a right to file the second appeal before the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission and that, under sub-section (8), the Central Information Commission has been given several powers including the power requiring the public authority to compensate the complainant for any loss or detriment suffered or to impose any of the penalties provided under the Act. Section 19 of the RTI Act, is reproduced herein below: -

“19. Appeal.—(1) Any person who, does not receive a decision within the time specified in sub-section (1) or clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 7, or is aggrieved by a decision of the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, may within thirty days from the expiry of such period or from the receipt of such a decision prefer an appeal to such officer who is senior in rank to the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer as the case may be, in each public authority:

Provided that such officer may admit the appeal after the expiry of the period of thirty days if he or she is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) Where an appeal is preferred against an order made by a Central Public Information Officer or a State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, under section 11 to disclose third party information, the appeal by the concerned third party shall be made within thirty days from the date of the order.

(3) A second appeal against the decision under sub-section (1) shall lie within ninety days from the date on which the decision should have been made or was actually received, with the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission: Provided that the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, may admit the appeal after the expiry of the period of ninety days if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(4) If the decision of the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, against which an appeal is preferred relates to information of a third party, the Central Information Commission or State Information Commission, as the case may be, shall give a reasonable opportunity of being heard to that third party.

(5) In any appeal proceedings, the onus to prove that a denial of a request was justified shall be on the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, who denied the request.

“20. Penalties.—(1) Where the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, at the time of deciding any complaint or appeal is of the opinion that the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, has, without any reasonable cause, refused to receive an application for information or has not furnished information within the timespecified under sub-section (1) of section 7 or malafidely denied the request for information or knowingly given incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or destroyed information which was the subject of the request or obstructed in any manner in furnishing the information, it shall 16 impose a penalty of two hundred and fifty rupees each day till application is received or information is furnished, so however, the total amount of suchpenaltyshallnotexceedtwenty-fivethousand rupees:

Provided that the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, shall be given areasonable opportunity of being heard before any penalty is imposed on him:

Provided further that the burden of proving thathe acted reasonably and diligently shall be on the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be.

(2) Where the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission, as the case may be, atthe time of deciding any complaint or appeal is of the opinion that the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, has, without any reasonable cause and persistently,failed to receive an application for information or hasnot furnished information within the time specifiedunder sub-section (1) of section 7 or malafidely denied the request for information or knowingly given incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or destroyed information which was the subject of the request or obstructed in any manner in furnishing the information, it shall recommend for disciplinary action against the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, under the service rules applicable to him.”

9. A conjoint reading of the above reproduced provisions would show that once a second appeal has been filed by an aggrieved person, then, after considering all the aspects, the matter is required to be finally adjudicated. In case, the Information Commissioner is of the opinion that the ingredients, as specified in Section 20 of the RTI Act are met, appropriate action is also required to be taken. In the present case, after prima facie holding in favour of the petitioner with respect to points No. (a) and (b) and after directing the CPIO to file a revised reply, the appeals have been disposed of by respondent No.2 without waiting for the said reply and without finally adjudicating the matter and thus, to the said extent, the impugned order deserves to be set aside”

The State Information Commissioner, Punjab, while adjudicating the second statutory appeal filed by the petitioner under Section 19(3) of the Act of 2005 was acting as a quasi judicial authority and was, therefore, required to adjudicate the case after considering the facts of the case, pleas raised by both the parties and was required to record reasons for rejecting the pleas of one party and accepting the pleas of the other party by passing a reasoned order. The order should have been self-explanatory and reasons given in the same should not have been rubber stamp reasons. The same has not been done in the present case and the impugned order passed is cryptic and non-speaking as has been detailed in para 7 of the present order.

10. Keeping in view the above said facts and circumstances, the present Civil Writ Petition is partly allowed and the impugned order dated 06.03.2023 (Annexure P-9) is set aside and the matter is remanded to the State Information Commissioner, Punjab for deciding Appeal Case No.452 of 2023 afresh after giving an opportunity of hearing to the contesting parties. The State Information Commissioner, Punjab, is directed to pass a speaking order dealing with the contentions raised by both the parties. The parties through their counsel are directed to appear before the State Information Commissioner, Punjab, on 24.08.2023.

11. It is, however, made clear that this Court has not given any final opinion on the merits of the case and it would be open to the State Information Commissioner, Punjab, to consider the case independently and in accordance with law.

12. This Court has found that in a large number of cases, the authorities including the first Appellate Authority {(while adjudicating the first statutory appeal under Section 19(1)} and the second Appellate Authority {(while adjudicating the second statutory appeal under Section 19(3)} under the Act, have been passing cryptic and non-speaking orders in violation of the judgments passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and various High Courts and also in violation of the mandate of the Act of 2005. It is, thus, found necessary to give the following directions to the first Appellate Authority and second Appellate Authority under the Act of 2005 to clearly specify the following at the time of finally adjudicating the case:-

Appeal Case No. 5968 of 2024

6. Section 2(f) of the RTI Act, 2005, provides:

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(f) "information" means any material in any form, including records, documents, memos, e-mails, opinions, advices, press releases, circulars, orders, logbooks, contracts, reports, papers, samples, models, data material held in any electronic form and information relating to any private body which can be accessed by a public authority under any other law for the time being in force;

7. Section 2 (i) of the RTI Act, 2005, provides:

(i) "record" includes—

(a) any document, manuscript and file;

(b) any microfilm, microfiche and facsimile copy of a document;

(c) any reproduction of image or images embodied in such microfilm (whether enlarged or not); and

(d) any other material produced by a computer or any other device;

8. It is also a fact that the respondent supplied the information and also the appellant inspected the complete record concerning the sought information which is available on record. It is also a fact that the respondent has to supply the information which is in existence but he is not bound to collect or collate the sought information and then supply it to the appellant.

9. It is appropriate to mention the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Civil Appeal nos. 6454 of 2011 in a case; Central Board of Secondary Education and another Versus Aditya Bandhopadhyay & Ors. before Ld. Judges - R. V. Raveendran and A. K. Patnaik and the relevant portion of the same is as follows :

“35. At this juncture, it is necessary to clear some misconceptions about the RTI Act. The RTI Act provides access to all information that is available and existing. This is clear from a combined reading of section 3 and the definitions of 'information' and 'right to information' under clauses (f) and (j) of section 2 of the Act. If a public authority has any information in the form of data or analysed data, or abstracts, or statistics, an applicant may access such information, subject to the exemptions in section 8 of the Act. But where the information sought is not a part of the record of a public authority, and where such information is not required to be maintained under any law or the rules or regulations of the public authority, the Act does not cast an obligation upon the public authority, to collect or collate such non- available information and then furnish it to an applicant. A public authority is also not required to furnish information which require drawing of inferences and/or making of assumptions. It is also not required to provide 'advice' or 'opinion' to an applicant, nor required to obtain and furnish any 'opinion' or 'advice' to an applicant. The reference to 'opinion' or 'advice' in the definition of 'information' in section 2(f) of the Act, only refers to such material available in the records of the public authority. Many public authorities have, as a public relation exercise, provide advice, guidance and opinion to the citizens. But that is purely voluntary and should not be confused with any obligation under the RTI Act."

10. From the above, it is evident that the respondent is not bound to give reply to the hypothetical questions asked by the appellant and the information has to be supplied, which is available on record. Therefore, the request of the appellant is not tenable and the judgment referred to by the appellant is not applicable in this case especially he had already inspected the complete record.

11. Keeping in view the above, the Commission is of the view that no further action is required to be taken in this case. As such, this case is disposed of & closed.
