3. That the respondent remained absent during the hearing, despite the fact that the notice of hearing was sent to him through registered post. The absence of the respondent is taken seriously by the Bench as it delays the proceedings of the case. However, in the interest of justice, the respondent PIO is directed to appear in person before the Bench on the next date of hearing and also to provide the requisite information to the appellant, if covered within the purview of the RTI Act, 2005, before the next date of hearing, under intimation to the Bench, failing which stringent action shall be taken against the PIO. The appellant is also directed to follow his case before the Bench.
