ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 24.09.2025 vide which the respondent was absent and the appellant was advised to point out deficiencies.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. The appellant has sent a letter that no information has been given to him so far.

3. The perusal of the case file shows that the respondent is absent for second consecutive hearing today in the Commission. The Commission observed that there is complete negligence and laxity in the public authority in dealing with the RTI application. It is abundantly clear that such matters are being ignored and set aside without application of mind which reflects disrespect towards that RTI act 2005 itself. However, before taking any penal proceedings against the Respondent PIO, the Commission wishes to give one last opportunity to him to appear before the Commission on the next date of hearing. The PIO is however, cautioned to exercise due care in future to ensure that correct and complete information is furnished timely to the RTI applicant(s) as provisions of the Act failing which penal proceedings under Section 20 shall be initiated.

AC No.5372 of 2023

Present :- (i) None for the appellant
(ii) For the respondent : Sh Amit Bansal, Sr Asstt. (99149-12046)

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 15.12.2023 which was passed by Former SIC Sh. Amrit Partap Singh Sekhon. After his retirement the said case was reallocated to the Bench of the undersigned. Accordingly, notice of hearing was issued to the parties. The case is taken up for hearing today.

2. The appellant is not present. However, the appellant has sent an e-mail through which he has sought an exemption from today's personal hearing and requested that this case be taken up for hearing through online mode.

3. The respondent states that the information, after the removal of deficiencies, as pointed out by the appellant, has already been provided to him.

AC No.5372of 2023

4. Further, it is also observed that this is a complex case. Moreover, the appellant has filed long handwritten RTI application which is not clear. Hence, to avoid the wastage of the time and resources of the Commission, the Bench directs the appellant to be present personally on the next date of hearing and state his case.

5. The perusal of the case file also shows that a show-cause notice was issued to the respondent vide orders dated 12.01.2023. The respondent has failed to file his reply. Hence, an opportunity is also given to the respondent-PIO to file his reply to the said show-cause notice on the next date of hearing.

5. Both the parties are directed to appear, in person, on the next date of hearing for deliberations, failing which the case will be decided on merit, ex-parte.

6. To come up on 12.05.2026 at 11:30 AM in the Commission office. Copy of the orders be sent to the parties.
