APPEAL CASE NO. 2962 of 2024

Present : None for the parties.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 23.09.2026 passed by the Commission.

2. Today neither the appellant nor the respondent is present. It is observed that both parties were also absent on the previous date of hearing. Neither party has submitted any letter, communication or request explaining their absence or informing the Commission of any reason for non-appearance. In view of the repeated absence of both parties and the absence of any communication from either side, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the matter pending. Accordingly, the case is disposed of and closed. Copy of the order be sent to the parties.

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 23.09.2026 passed by the Commission in this case.

2. The appellant states that the information furnished to him is not complete. He adds that the details of grants received, as demanded through his RTI application has not been provided to him.

3. The respondent states that he has brought the copy of the complete information, including the details of grants to be provided to the appellant. He adds that as directed, he has also brought the amount of Rs 15,000/- to be refunded to the appellant. Hence, the copy of the information along with the amount of Rs 15,000/- is handed over to the appellant today. Further, the respondent also tenders unconditional apology regarding delay occurred in this case and made oral submissions in this regard. Also he has requested to withdraw the show cause notice issued to the respondent-PIO. Keeping in view all the facts the show cause notice is hereby dropped. However, the respondent-PIO is strictly cautioned to remain vigilant in future and to ensure that applications received under the Right to Information Act, 2005 are dealt with and information is furnished within the prescribed period, so as to avoid unnecessary delay and further proceedings before the Commission.

4. In view of the above, it has been ascertained that the directions of the Commission have been complied with. Hence, no further intervention of the Commission is warranted in the matter and this Appeal stands disposed and closed accordingly. Copy of the order be sent to the parties.

AC No.6100 of 2024

Present : (i)ShManavMonga, appellant
(ii) For the respondent- PIO-ShSudhir Mittal, Supdt. (98552-87700)

ORDER

This order may be read with reference to the previous order dated 17.09.2026 passed by the Commission in this case.

2. The appellant states that he has already pointed out deficiencies to the respondent pertaining to point no. 2 but the complete information has not been provided to him.

3. The respondent states that the complete point wise specific information running into 862 pages, after the removal of deficiencies, has been provided to the appellant. He adds that no other information is pending to be provided to the appellant.

4. The Commission has examined the matter and observed that the appellant is a contractor and that the grievance relates to the release of his pending contractual payment by the respondent. The Commission is of the view that the issue of release of contractual payment does not fall within the scope of the present proceedings under the Right to Information Act, 2005. The Commission, while exercising its jurisdiction under the RTI Act, cannot adjudicate upon the merits of a contractual payment dispute. The appellant is at liberty to approach the appropriate authority for redressal of his grievance regarding the pending payment, in accordance with law.
